Task Force of Clark County High Capacity Transit Study meets Tuesday

Clark County, WA – The Task Force of the Clark County High Capacity Transit (HCT) System Study meets again on Tuesday, November 13 from 6:00-8:30 p.m. at the Public Service Center, 1300 Franklin Street, Vancouver, WA, in the 6th floor Hearing Room. The Task Force will review the modeling analyses and evaluation framework for the State Route 14 and State Route 500 corridors, as well as compare how alignments and corridors serve the Clark County region. All members of the public are welcome to attend.

The Task Force is a group of fourteen representatives from a range of community interests, including local colleges, businesses, neighborhood associations, environmental groups, health and safety organizations, building trade associations, education, transit users, and youth and leadership councils. The Clark County HCT System Study is evaluating various HCT transit technologies and travel corridors in Clark County to determine which will best meet the future transit needs of county residents

Please join us at the Task Force meeting:

November 13, 2007, 6:00 p.m.
