Task Force of Clark County High Capacity Transit Study meets Monday

Clark County, WA – The Task Force of the Clark County High Capacity Transit (HCT) System Study meets again on Monday, October 20, at 6:30 p.m. at the Clark County Public Service Center, 1300 Franklin St., Vancouver, WA. Attendees will meet in the 6th Floor Training Room. The Task Force will review the proposed HCT System Plan, provide guidance on possible policy changes to help implement HCT, and discuss potential priority corridors. All members of the public are welcome to attend the meeting.

The Task Force is a group of fourteen representatives from a range of community interests, including local colleges, businesses, neighborhood associations, environmental groups, health and safety organizations, building trade associations, education, transit users, and youth and leadership councils. The Clark County HCT System Study is evaluating various HCT transit technologies and travel corridors in Clark County to determine which will best meet the future transit needs of county residents.

Please join us at the Task Force meeting:

October 20, 2008, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.
